

Network Configuration Task

Configure the network as follows:

The IP address of your system should be: 172.25.X.10

Subnet Mask: 255.255.255.0

Name Server: 172.25.254.254

Gateway: 172.25.X.254

Note: X is your foundation number.

The hostname of your machine should be desktopX.example.com where X is your foundation number.

Configure a link aggregation on both systems

- a. your System has a network interfaces "eno1" and "eno2"
- b. These two interface should be Slaved for new teaming device called "team1".
(Make sure "team1" should remain active even if one of the interfaces goes down)
- c. Assign the given IP address for "team1" on 1st system - 172.25.XX.50
- d. Assign the given IP address for "team1" on 2nd system - 172.25.XX.60

Configure the following IPV6 ip address for interface eth0 on your both systems.

- a. IPV6 address for 1st NIC - "fddb:fe2a:ab1e::c0a8:1/64"
- b. IPV6 address for 2nd NIC - "fddb:fe2a:ab1e::c0a8:fe/64"
- c. IPV6 address for 3rd NIC – "fddb:fe2a:ab1e::c0a8:1fe/64"

Eng. Muhammad Adel